

BLACK PINE CIRCLE SCHOOL

A SCHOOL OF THOUGHT

Presents

A K-8 Parent Education Evening

NAVIGATING YOUR CHILD'S SOCIAL WORLD

LED BY SHERI GLUCOFT WONG

Sheri Glucoft Wong, LCSW, family therapist and parent educator, joins us for a presentation about the role parents play in their children's social development. Sheri will offer strategies for supporting kids in their peer relationships as well as their school social scene at the various stages of their development.

"Sheri's thoughts and ideas on communicating with my kids echo in my head, everyday. Her strategies have helped me become a better mom." - 3rd & 6th grade parent

Thursday, November 14, 2013
6:30 pm - 9 pm

The workshop will start promptly at 7:00 pm, so please come after 6:30 pm in order to have time to have coffee and to get settled.

Location: Black Pine Circle School Library
2027 7th St. between
Addison St. and University Ave.

Please RSVP to Lesley Jones, ljones@blackpinecircle.org
by Friday, November 8, 2013

Please invite your friends.

Our Parent Education Events are a wonderful way to introduce people to Black Pine Circle School.